

Shout out to my sister, The Doctor

Sunday, 08 June 2008

That's right! My little sister received her PhED yesterday.

Congrats, Lynda! I'm busting proud of you!

I've always tried to deny she is smarter than me, but now she has the papers - and a title - to prove it. Hey, Sis...I mean, Dr. Sis, when do you expect the movie version of your dissertation will be released?
